Description

Welcome to your future getaway - a charming detached villa with 5 bedrooms and 3 bathrooms, situated in picturesque Bias do Norte, Moncarapacho.

This splendid property offers a generous total living area of 250 square meters, ensuring ample space for relaxation and entertaining.

Perfectly located close to pristine beaches, quality schools and convenient stores, it presents an unrivaled lifestyle opportunity in an idyllic country setting.

This exquisite home, built with classic brick architecture, features a welcoming entrance hall leading to spacious interiors reflecting both character and potential.

With its antique charm, this property is an ideal canvas for those with a vision of renovation, promising an exciting project to make this space truly their own.

The south-facing position of the house ensures that it is bathed in natural sunlight, enhancing the beauty of its older construction.

Step outside to discover extensive grounds stretching over 1920 square meters, perfect for outdoor enthusiasts.

The garden area offers an oasis of tranquillity, while the balcony and roof terrace offer stunning views of the picturesque surroundings and the sea in the distance. A 2-car garage, with additional parking space for up to 4 vehicles, ensures convenience and security for the whole family.

Additional features include a large storage room, a rare convenience in residential spaces, making organization easy. This property, although in need of renovation, promises the potential of a home that is both historic and personal, situated in a location that is as practical as it is serene.

Don't miss the opportunity to own a piece of Portuguese paradise, perfectly combining convenience, potential and the tranquillity of country life.
