Description

This outstanding development will feature a 4-star hotel with 120 rooms and 139 branded residences, carefully designed to deliver a refined blend of sophistication, exclusivity, and contemporary architecture.

More than a highly attractive investment opportunity, this project grants access to a thriving and well-established community, located in one of the safest, most prestigious, and desirable regions in Europe, where demand for luxury real estate continues to grow in a stable and sustainable way.

With a differentiated concept tailored to international clients seeking premium living standards, this development benefits from a strong hospitality market, a unique lifestyle offering, and significant value-appreciation potential in both the short and long term.

The combination of premium hospitality, high-end branded residences, and an exceptional location makes this project a standout proposal for investors who prioritize security, strong returns, and long-lasting asset value.
