Description

This equestrian estate extends over 7.1 hectares in a protected natural park just minutes from the Atlantic coast and the Algarve border. Offering privacy, natural beauty and generous facilities, the property includes two well-appointed residences with six bedrooms, additional guest cabins and a separate cottage, all overlooking the pool and rolling countryside.

Professionally equipped for equestrian use, the estate features 9 stables, 14 paddocks, three training arenas and an 18 m covered horse walker, making it ideal for tourism, livery or competition use. With abundant water supply and full irrigation throughout, this versatile property presents a rare opportunity for both private owners and investors seeking a fully established equestrian centre in one of Portugal's most sought-after rural regions.
