Description

Imagine it's late afternoon, the golden hour light bathing your enormous private garden of 468 m² on average, with the aroma of lavender and wild thyme drifting from the national forest right next door. If you're looking for a sustainable 4-bedroom villa near Lagos that effortlessly blends ecological luxury with plenty of space for the family, this 185 m² sanctuary set on an average plot of 628 m² changes everything.

The Heart of the House

Run your hands across the solid cement-look countertops and welcoming Ash Oak wood cabinets in your kitchen equipped with premium TEKA appliances. Your bare feet will appreciate the floating flooring in AMORIM WICANDERS oak, while passive stack ventilation and breathable lime-painted walls keep the interior air fresh, dry, and at the perfect temperature.

Sanctuary & Silence

With four bedrooms and three equipped bathrooms, family morning routines are peaceful. The bathrooms feature large ceramic tiles that create a natural stone appearance and a grounded atmosphere. Meanwhile, GEALAN frames with double glazing surround your living spaces in silence, offering approximately 50 dB of acoustic reduction to ensure complete peace.

The Luxurious Off-Grid Lifestyle

This is not just an environmentally friendly family home in the Algarve's Barlavento region; it's a carefully designed lifestyle. After a dip in your private plunge pool, you can stroll through the community food forest or take the kids to the natural playscape made from solid tree trunks. Want to feel the ocean's energy? The iconic cliffs of Camilo Beach and vibrant Lagos coast are just 15 minutes' drive away.
