Description

Discover this delightful 23 m² studio situated in one of Lisbon's most traditional areas. The property, with short-term rental license, stands out for its welcoming atmosphere, perfect for those seeking practicality and comfort in a central location. The presence of air conditioning provides a pleasant climate throughout the year, making the space even more inviting.

The building features a typical Lisbon façade decorated with beautiful tiles, conferring authenticity and charm to the location. Inside, traditional details mixed with modern elements create a unique and sophisticated atmosphere, ideal for those who value style and functionality in compact spaces.

The location is privileged, with easy access to gardens, viewpoints, and the vibrant environment of Lisbon's historic neighborhoods. Make the most of what the city has to offer, just minutes from public transportation, restaurants, and local shops. An excellent opportunity to live or invest in the Portuguese capital.
